

Eddie Lincoln
March 10, 1846- February 10, 1850

Eddie (Edward Baker) was the second son of Abraham and Mary Lincoln. He visited Lexington in 1847, 1848, and 1849. During the 1848 visit to Lexington with his mother, his older brother Bob brought home a kitten. Eddie liked the kitten very much. When his grandmother asked a servant to throw it out, he screamed and cried.

Shortly after his last visit to Lexington, Eddie fell ill. He was sick for 52 days. He died on Feb 1, 1850. He was 3 years old. Eddie was a cute, loving little boy who was deeply missed by his family.
